To whom it may concern.

This is a reference letter in support Global Renovations Ltd. Ross Roof Group has been using Global Renovations as a subcontractor for roofing repair and maintenance. Global Renovations have also done new home build roof lots and done their own project management. Quality of work has been remarkable and timely finished. We have also subcontracted Global Renovations on occasion for extra jobs, they have been very reasonably priced, and always do exactly what is required.

They do an excellent job, are always punctual, and offer the most competitive rates.

Global Renovations Director, Faizal Dean, leads his company and crew and with great communication all around. Faizal has been reliable quick to solve problems and really hands on.
